HUMAN RIGHTS IN COLOMBIA

Collection of work by Photographer Pablo Serrano

Opening Reception Tuesday, September 27th @7pm

Pablo Serrano is a photojournalist from Colombia S.A. For many years he has worked for the Colombian news agency 'Agencia Prensa Rural.' Prensa Rural was created by peasant farmer organizations in an effort to stop the censorship of the Colombian internal conflict in specific regions. The agency serves eight farmer communities in conflict areas of Colombia. During the past ten years Serrano has taken thousands of photos documenting civil resistance in the Colombian social conflict. A collection of his work has been touring California during 2011.
